YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOC.—The Young Men's Christian Association of Alexandria and a large delegation of the same organization from Washington city met at the M. P. Church last night in a joint devotional meeting.

The visiting members arrived on the six o'clock boat from Washington, and were met by the President of the association here, and the chairman of the Executive Committee, with whom they at once repaired to the church, and by 7 o'clock the house was well filled.

Rev. Geo. A. Hall, the Secretary of the Washington Association, presided. After singing a hymn, the leader made a few earnest remarks, in which he turned the minds and hearts of the congregation to the special object for which the meeting was convened, viz: the asking for the guidance and blessed influences of the Holy Spirit, in the effort to draw near to the Most High God. The President of the Alexandria Association was called to lead in prayer, and others followed, and before the people arose from their knees, the whole assembly, as with a single purpose, seemed to be in earnest heart-felt supplication to the Throne of Divine Grace for a heavenly blessing. After singing another of the hymns, which were brought by the visiting association, and which were especially appropriate to the character of the meeting, the leader read from the 10th chapter of Mark, 46 to 52 verse, the history of the restoration to sight of Bartimaeus, accompanying his reading with short, stirring comments, and applications of the theme, pointing out among which was the fact that Bartimaeus, when he heard the tumult and confusion, occasioned by the throng which pressed about the Saviour, regardless of reproaches, and the charges of those around him "to hold his peace," with the great burden of his life weighing upon him heavily, and a firm conviction that the "Jesus of Nazareth" was able to help in his time of need—"cried the more a great deal, Jesus thou son of David, have mercy on me." So the speaker argued should we be indifferent to the criticism of the world and the dread of our fellows, when approaching Jesus. He also drew a most forcible lesson from the throwing off of the Jewish robe by Bartimaeus, which would have impeded his progress, when the Saviour called him. It were well for all of us, if when the Saviour calls we get rid of every weight, let go our evil associations, our worldly attachments, and those special causes of hindrance, and fly as for life, as did Bartimaeus, with our fingers in our ears, crying as he did, "let me see." Closing, Mr. Hall called attention to the fact that Jesus of Nazareth, was over-passing by the streets of Alexandria and of Washington, as in the days of his incarnation through the streets of Jericho, and to-night he is "passing by;" let us address our appeals to Him, with as little of form as possible, let there be no fear of man, or hesitation in those taking part. Each has a burden with Bartimaeus, let the Saviour say to each of us to-night, "Go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole." In response to a suggestion, the entire audience, with a unanimity seldom seen in such meetings, bowed—all kneeling—before God in silent prayer, during which the hymn, "Nearer my God to Thee," was sung. Then followed addresses, experiences, singing and fervent devotions. The exercises had not a moment's cessation; every one seemed to be anxious to speak for Jesus, and at the close of the meeting, in answer to a call from the leader, three persons asked for the prayers of those present, that God would open their spiritually blinded eyes. Prayer was offered especially for these persons, and the meeting was dismissed with the Benediction by Rev. Mr. Benson, the pastor of the M. P. Church. Although two and a half hours had already passed, the congregation seemed indisposed to separate, and joined in singing once more, "I love to tell the story." Ac. The visiting delegation returned to Washington on the ferry boat at 10 o'clock.

THE LIBRARY FESTIVAL.—It is gratifying to be able to state that the ladies have responded heartily to the call of the Committee on Festival of the Library company, as evinced by the large attendance at the meeting yesterday evening. Shortly after the appointed time of meeting, about fifty ladies had assembled, all actuated by a desire to do what they can to aid the "good work." On motion of K. Kemper, Samuel H. Janney presided. Geo. R. Hill acted as secretary. Three of the ladies present were appointed managers, and committees of three, representing each of the different churches, chosen to solicit contributions, and take such other steps as may be desired to act as the Directors present were requested to act as a committee to procure a suitable room in which to hold the Festival, and Mr. A. C. Uhl kindly volunteered to furnish the evergreen for decorating purposes. After transacting all the business before it, the meeting adjourned until next Friday evening, at 4 o'clock, to receive reports from the various committees and take further action. In the hands of the ladies the depleted treasury of the Library company will soon be replenished and its usefulness increased thereby.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—William Hicks, for having in his possession a coat belonging to John Beckley, both colored, was discharged upon giving up the required warrant.

Sampson Carver, colored, who was disorderly and abusive in the store of Mr. Smith, at the ferry slip, and was knocked down by the proprietor for not leaving his store when ordered, was fined and discharged, as was also Mr. Smith.

William Miller and George Millburn, colored sailors, for disorderly conduct on the streets, were fined and discharged.

Charles Green, colored, for abusive language, was dismissed with an admonition.

NIGHT REPORT.—Night cloudy and mild. There was a disturbance at a house at the upper end of King street, but before the police appeared all was quiet.

Two burglars and two prisoners were at the station house.

RELIEF FIRE COMPANY.—A regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night at which a more numerous attendance than usual was present. Capt. J. M. Stewart, President, occupied the chair and A. A. Wardlaw was Secretary.

At the Constitution and by-laws of the company having been destroyed by the fire at the depot of the O. A. & M. R. R. some time ago, substitutes for the same were adopted.

M. H. G. Willis and W. S. Kendrick, were elected active members of the company.

The committee appointed some time since to make arrangements for holding a fair for the benefit of the company submitted their report, which was accepted, and a resolution was adopted inviting the ladies who take an interest in the matter to meet next Tuesday afternoon.

The new alarm bell for the truck house will arrive here about the latter part of next week.

BOAT RACE.—The contest between the yachts Emma Latham, Fannie, Fannie Bell, and Echo took place yesterday.

The course was from Washington to Fort Washington. On the return, the boats passed this city in the following order: Fannie Bell, 5:46; Fannie, 5:47; Echo, 5:50; and the Emma Latham, just astern. The Fannie was but a minute behind the Bell.

A stiff breeze was blowing, and above here the Fannie lapped the Bell. At the Arsenal the wind died away, and a dead calm prevailed, and the boats really had to drift up with the tide. The result of the race was as follows: Fannie Bell, 7:44; Fannie, 7:45. The other two boats were not timed as they did not arrive until after the judges left.

CAPT. STEWART'S REMARKS.—In the Gazette's report of the remarks made by Capt. J. M. Stewart, of this city, at the West End meeting, on Thursday evening, the language used to convey his ideas was not exactly correct.

In speaking of those, who by their acts, were giving aid and comfort to the Radicals, those who claim to be Conservatives, and who are now acting with the party, but who still declare that the candidates of the opposition party are good enough for them, are trying to influence young men by in-laws not sufficient arduous to join the Radical party, deserve the condemnation of all honest men, and are not worthy to associate with a good dog.

"BERTHA, the Beauty, a Story of the Southern Revolution, by Sarah J. C. Whittelsey." This is a new novel published by Claxon, Remson, & Haffelfinger, Philadelphia. It is the production of a lady of this place, and is one of the best of her works. The story is an interesting one, and many of the scenes and incidents related, concerning the late war, occurred in this place and neighborhood, and will be recognized and remembered by our citizens.

After the sorrows and trials of the heroine, happiness and contentment prevail at the conclusion of the tale, and all's well that ends well. The publishers have prepared the book in a handsome manner. It is for sale in this city, and will doubtless have many readers.

RADICAL OBJECTION TO A VOTER.—We learn from the Registrar of Washington Township, in Alexandria county, that a young man named William Langton, a native of that township, and a property holder there, was registered by him a few days ago; whereupon a federal officer, who is not even a native of the United States, and has but recently come to live in the city, objected, on the ground that Langton had served the United States five years as a soldier, and had only returned home four months ago, on the expiration of his term of enlistment.

HAMPSHIRE & BALTIMORE COAL COMPANY.—The Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, having purchased the "Brown Shed" property, and leased for a term of ten years the property adjoining it on the north, known as Daingerfield's wharf, will on the 1st proximo commence tearing down the framed buildings there, preparatory to making valuable improvements, and in the spring will establish their depot there.

INJUNCTION CASE.—The case of Freely and others against the Washington and Alexandria Turnpike company and others, in which an injunction restraining the prosecution of work on the Washington Turnpike for railroad purposes was granted by Judge Cockeille, of the county court for this county, has been carried by appeal to the Circuit court, the writ being made returnable on Monday, the 13th inst.

FOURTH WARD RADICALS.—At a meeting of the Fourth Ward Radical Club, held last night, R. H. Hopkins, J. A. Thompson, A. W. Harris, C. Seales, and W. H. Davis were appointed a vigilance committee, to attend at the polls in that ward on election day. There was no speaking—the orators being absent in attendance on the meeting of the county committee.
